

If your talent walks into a biopic unprepared, it won't just be noticeable. It will be embarrassing.

For Agents and Talent Managers

Biopics and historical roles expose every gap.

Journalists see it. Critics see it. Audiences feel it.

So you give them an advantage the room can't ignore:

a structured method tested across 130+ projects.

First step: a private webinar with the author of »Preparing Historical Roles«.

Clear structure. No guesswork. No panic research.
